Dear Jack and Lisa,

I have recently met with Ali Raza Visram, the president of African Mecca based in Allentown PA and seen the incredible interactive data base he has built up of hotels, game lodges, tented camps and beach resorts.

This research has taken a few years to collect and many hours to create one of the finest websites, www.africanmeccasafaris.com I have seen.

It is well worth visiting. For the amount of information it has it is fairly quick as well. Apart from being interactive the site is full of information about each property including rates.

Your next safari can be planned and paid for straight from your desk!

With kind regards,

M. Round-Turner
