AfricanMecca Clients Renew Vows At Satao Rock Camp

Coastweek Newspaper 23 June 06 -- AfricanMecca clients, Neal and Cheryl O'Horo recently arrived in Mombasa, Kenya from the United States to renew their wedding vows at the spectacular and panoramic Satao Rock Camp located in the Taita Ranch.

The wedding vow renewal experience was one that Neal and Cheryl wanted to be a big part of their Kenya experience.

Neal had been serving in the US Army in Iraq for 14 months prior.

The separation of the couple was very difficult during his time away from home, which made the couple realize the value of marriage and life in general.

The couple chose AfricanMecca as their Africa destination specialists with an affirmation of Kenya as the destination of choice because of the varied experiences available in one country.....

Safari Destination Guide

Tarangire National Park

Tarangire (pronounced as Taa-raa-nghee-reh) is one of the few national parks in Tanzania, whose flora and fauna have not been elaborately described to prospective guests, making the park being overlooked and skipped during the Tanzania's northern circuit safaris.

Apart from Tarangire National Park's collage of varied colors of vegetation, supported by the water system to create a fantastic hue, the park is home to large concentrations of wildlife, all which can be observed from multiple angles: from the incredible views on the hilltop at Tarangire Safari Lodge where all one needs to do is perch themselves on a chair with a pair of binoculars or experience an alternative game viewing experience at superb camps such as Swala, where the wildlife and the action that follow it are less than 15 feet away from a guest's tent. The birdlife at Tarangire are unmatched attracting 550 species seen easily on the Acacia and Baobab trees and on the riverbeds of the Tarangire River.

Indian Ocean Beach Destination Guide

Top 10 Reasons To Visit Zanzibar - Indian Ocean's Serene & Romantic Beach Holiday Destination

1. Beach Vacation: Zanzibar which includes Unguja, Pemba and Mafia Islands remains one of few undiscovered pristine beach island destinations in the world with beautiful white silky-sand beaches and azure blue waters where the water temperatures are refreshingly warm. Guests can choose to swim in the Indian Ocean, relax under the shades of the famous Zanzibar coconut trees and read their book or sun bathe, cultivating their mind, body and soul and taking it far away from the hustle and bustle of daily life in their hometown.

So if you want a vacation that offers excellent relaxation, pristine Indian Ocean waters, wonderful climate, good food and plenty of sun to relax you for the year ahead then Zanzibar should be on your list for a superb beach vacation.

2. Cultural Visit: Stay in Stone Town and interact with the Zanzibaris undertaking their daily chores or participating in trade at the local food market. Take a walk through Stone Town and see the different faces that greet you: Zanzibaris of Persian, African, Arab, Asian, and European heritage. The day's enjoyment leads to the evening awesomeness when locals and visiting guests congregate at the Forodhani Gardens to participate in a feast that displays the strength of Zanzibar's cultural interaction.

So if you want your vacation to have a fun mix of relaxation and cultural interaction, Zanzibar and the surrounding Islands can deliver a dual vacation with lots to offer.....

Recommended African Safari Program

- Best Of Tanzania Safari

Tanzania is truly a blessed country. It is home to superb concentrations of diverse wildlife. AfricanMecca's Best Of Tanzania guides our guests through the best wildlife experiences throughout the country complete in one program. Our experience in operating discerning programs along with ability to deliver superb and skilled-guided experience on the ground makes AfricanMecca's Best Of Tanzania undoubtedly the best program travelers to Tanzania will ever find.

Experience the ecosystem of the Great Rift Valley with your visit to Lake Manyara National Park. The park provides a great way to sample diverse wildlife and birdlife with in a short time. Lake Manyara also indulges guests who enjoy the outdoors with a variety of active offerings. The Ngorongoro Crater rim delivers awesome and spectacular views of the crater with the opportunity to descend the crater floor for a game drive. On the way to the Serengeti National Park stop over at the Olduvai Gorge located in the conservation area. It is here, on this Maasai owned land that balance between retaining the rights for the Maasai to continue the pastoral ways and Tanzania Government's control of natural resources has been bound. Watch the young Maasai child tend to their cattle a few steps away from the site where hominid remains were excavated. Continue on to Serengeti epitomized around the globe in documentaries, movies and even animated cartoons. The Serengeti is home to the wildebeest, zebras and antelopes during the great migration season. The presence of migration attracts prey and predator to partake in the cycle of life, which is eloquently described in AfricanMecca's poem about the Serengeti.

Prices start from US $1330 or GBP 807 per person sharing.
